Tx. Archives

The Eugene C. Barker Texas History Center was established by The University of Texas Board of Regents in 1945. By regental directive, all books, archives, letters, documents, and other items relating to Texas and Southwestern history were to be brought together in one place on the University campus, to be "a corner forever Texas."

The Texas Collection had its beginnings in 1883 with the opening of the Law Department, which was charged with the responsibility for acquiring Texas materials. In its developed form, the Collection is composed of three complementary units - The Texas Collection Library, the University Archives, and the Texas Newspaper Collection.

The Texas Collection Library, considered the largest and most nearly complete collection of Texana, includes more than 100,000 titles of printed material about Texas, published in Texas, or produced by writers who are identified with Texas.

The University Archives, one of the largest such institutions in the country, contains over 7,000,000 items. The Archives had its beginning at the end of the 1800's with the acquisition of the Bexar Archives, the incomparable record of Spanish and Mexican colonial administration in Texas. Soon after, Col. Guy M. Bryan designated the University as the permanent repository for the equally invaluable Austin Papers. Other collections of special significance include transcriptions from the national archives of Mexico and Spain, the Oral History of Texas Oil Pioneers, a cartographic collection of 6,000 items, and an extensive collection of broadsides. The Archives also serves as the official depository for retired University records.

THE TEXAS NEWSPAPER COLLECTION provides access to approximately 2,000 different titles of newspapers published in the state beginning in 1829. Included are some 100 titles of foreign language newspapers published by the various ethnic groups who have contributed so significantly to Texas history.

In addition to the Texas Newspaper Collection there are newspaper clipping files on the second floor of the Barker Center filed by county. These files were made during the 1930's by the WPA and contain obituaries and historical articles.

The Barker Center is located in Austin, Texas in the Lyndon B. Johnson Library Complex. The collection is open Monday - Friday from 8-12 and 1-5, Saturday 8-12. Free parking.

Old & New Style Calendars

The Old Style or Julian Calendar was used in Great Britain and her colonies until 1752 when the Gregorian or New Style Calendar was adopted. To adjust for overestimation of the solar year by 11 minutes 14 seconds, the Gregorian Calendar had added 10 days to each year from 1582 to 1699, added 11 days to the succeeding years through 1751, and left 11 days out of 1752. England's decree made 14 Sept. 1752, follow Sept. 2. Under the Old Style (O. S.) which is customary abbreviation, the year usually began 25 March (vernal equinox). Washington's birthday is 22 Feb. 1732 or '31/'32. Unless otherwise stated, dates spanning the year 1752 are assumed to be "New Style."

In Vol. III, #4, p. 90 of the Quarterly Hudson Martin's Bible stated he was born July the third 1752 OS. This will explain the OS notation and its meaning.

Corrections

Vol. I, #1, p. 3
Joseph Martin, b. 4 Feb. 1791, son of John Martin (1756-1823) and Nancy Shipp, grandson of Joseph Martin and Susannah Chiles, married 17 July 1819, Stokes Co., N. C. See page 39 - this issue.

Vol. I, #1, p. 4
William Martin who married Rachel Dalton was b. 1742, d. 1809. The information included in the sketch was correct (he was the son of Joseph Martin and Susannah Chiles), but his middle name was not Peters. Thanks to Mr. C. L. Hewitt, Jr. of Clearwater, Fla. this error has been corrected.

Mr. Hewitt found in Vol. 59, p. 4, Oct. 1951 issue of the Virginia Magazine of History & Biography the following deed:

6 Dec. 1770 Elizabeth Martin widow & William Peters Martin, Gent. and Elizabeth his wife, all of King William Co. to Benjamin Waller, of Williamsburg, Esqr. for £ 384 currency convey 321 acres in St. John's Parish, King Wm. Co., adjoining John Madison, the main County Road, Ambrose Lipscomb, James Martin, the said Benjamin Waller, John Austin, James Moyler, Richard Hunt, the head of the Miery Branch, Captain James Quarles; said land devised by John Martin, Gent., decd. to said Elizabeth Martin during her widowhood and afterwards to his son the said William Peters Martin (67 1/2 acres part of this tract was conveyed to the said William Peters Martin by James Quarles). Recorded King Wm. Co. Court 20 Dec. 1770, 20 Jan. 1771 and 17 Oct. 1771. (Original deed in the Waller Family Papers).

James Martin & Elizabeth Crawford

Through the combined efforts of Nancy Martin-Perdue of Woodville, Va. and Mrs. Lewis Patrick O'Neill of Dallas, Texas we present the documentation for the James Martin-Elizabeth Crawford line. [See Vol. III, #4, p. 86-89]. Also refer to Vol. I, #4, p. 77-pension of Salathiel Martin; Vol. II, #2, p. 34-pension of Azariah Martin; Vol. III, #3, p. 74-76-subscriber lineage for Obediah Martin.

Many other documents will be added to this line in later issues, but we are delighted to present the connections found here.

1. James Martin[1]

will recorded Book I, p. 279, Amherst Co., Va., made 25 Sept. 1771 and proved 9 March 1775. Eight children were named in the will - Azariah, John, William, James, David, dau. (son-in-law) William Terrell Lewis, dau. (son-in-law) Thomas Anthony.

The 1771 will gave negroes to all the children and money to the son-in-law William Terrill Lewis and son-in-law Thomas Anthony. Azariah Martin, the youngest son, received the land where James Martin lived on the north branch of Rockfish River (360 acres) and slaves. William Martin, James Martin and Azariah Martin were executors of James Martin's will. By this time David Martin was in Surry Co., N. C. and Obediah Martin was in Caswell Co., N. C.

In Deed Book 2, Albemarle Co., Va. James Martin, Sr. gave land to his sons. "3 May 1759 James Martin Senr. of the Parish of St. Ann in the County of Albemarle of the one part & John Martin his son of the said Parish and County of the other part." Recorded Book 2, p. 136, Albemarle Co., Va. Deeds. Deed Book 2, p. 137 - almost the same identical deed to "James Martin Junr. his son." Deed Book 2, p. 138 - to "Obediah Martin, his son." Deed Book 2, p. 140 - to "William Martin his son." Deed Book 2, p. 141 - "David Martin his son."

Deed Book D, p. 24, Amherst Co., Va., James Martin Senr. "of the Parish and County of Amherst planter for and in consideration of love and affection which I have and do bear toward my youngest son Azariah Martin of the same parish and county, etc." 2 Jan. 1775.

Deed Book 2, Albemarle Co., Va., p. 135. "This indenture made this third day of May in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and fifty nine between James Martin of the Parish of St. Ann in the county of Albemarle of the one part and Stephen Martin of the said parish and county of the other part. Witnesseth that the said James Martin Senr. for & in consideration of the sum of twenty two pounds of current money of Virginia to him in hand paid by the said Stephen Martin before sealing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof he hath here by acknowledged hath given bargained sold aliened enoffered and confirmed and by these presents doth give bargain sell, etc."

All of the sons were given the land and named "his son." Stephen Martin paid James Martin, Sr. for his land. All the deeds in question were for 200 acres. Nancy Martin-Perdue suggests that Stephen Martin was a brother of James Martin, Sr. The Stephen Martin, above, is probably the brother or nephew of James Martin, Sr. and not a son. Stephen Martin - was not named his son.

The only witness on all the above deeds besides the sons of James Martin, Sr. was John Staples.

James Martin married Elizabeth Crawford, dau. of David Crawford and Elizabeth Smith. Since we only have marriage, deed and probate records we can only assume birthdates for this family. Azariah Martin, the youngest son, would have been born ca. 1750. His mother was born ca. 1699 and James Martin, Sr. born ca. 1690. More records must be found before these dates will be documented. A study of the records thus far seems to indicate James Martin and Elizabeth Crawford married ca. 1720 and stated having their children soon after.

Children of James Martin and Elizabeth Crawford:

i. JOHN MARTIN made a deed 8 May 1777 Deed Book D, p. 455, Amherst Co., Va. with wife Mary Martin. He wasn't the John who married Milly Rucker as stated p. 86, Vol. III.

This land was sold to Shearwood Martin.

ii. WILLIAM MARTIN named as "his son" in father's will.

iii. JAMES MARTIN, b. ca. 1742. We stated in Vol. III, p. 87 that he may have been born in Goochland Co., Va. Until more documents are found we can't be certain of this. His will was made 25 July 1796 & probated 5 March 1799, Madison Co., Ky. He m. 29 March 1762, Albemarle Co., Va., SARAH HARRIS, dau. of Christopher Harris and Mary Dabney.

His children were listed p. 87-89, Vol. III, #4. Descendants primarily went to Rockcastle Co., Ky.; Madison Co., Ky.; Boone Co., Mo.

iv. OBEDIAH MARTIN. 1 Dec. 1783 Obediah Martin "of the County of Caswell North Carolina province of the one part and John Martin of the County of Amherst of the other part." "unto the said John Martin and his heirs one certain tract or parcel of land containing two hundred acres being part of the tract of sixteen hundred and fifty acres of Captain James Martin lying and being in the county of Amherst and is bounded as followeth, etc." Amherst Co., Va. Deed Book E, p. 498. Recorded 3 May 1784 by oath of Azariah Martin and James Martin.

v. SARAH MARTIN m. WILLIAM TERRELL LEWIS, to Wilkes Co.,NC.

vi. Dau. m. THOMAS ANTHONY.

vii. DAVID MARTIN. His father's 1771 will gave David Martin three negro slaves Manchester, David and Patty. Surry Co., N. C. records show David Martin died intestate and the inventory of his estate gave slaves David & Patty to SALATHIEL MARTIN. Salathiel Martin and Mary M. Martin signed the inventory.

The pension application for Obediah Martin #R6976 made by his widow, Winnefred Cook Martin said she was married in Sept. of 1785, Surry Co., N. C. by Salathiel Martin, Obediah's brother. Salathiel Martin was justice of the peace in Surry Co. at that time.

1. Obediah Martin. See sketch Vol. III, #3, p. 74.

2. Salathiel Martin. See abstract of pension application Vol. I, #4, p. 77.

viii. AZARIAH MARTIN, b. ca. 1750. Named in deed previously mentioned as the youngest son of James Martin, Sr.

He m. 19 March 1772, Amherst Co., Va., MARY RODES.

His will was proved 26 July 1824, Nelson Co., Va. & is recorded in Will Book C, p. 179. The will named: "my eldest daughter, Anne Turner; my son, Thomas Martin; my son,Charles Martin; my son, William Martin 220 acres
